Summary

Summary of no more than 100 words (this needs to be pasted into the 'Abstract' box on Oxford Abstracts).

KEYWORDS: 5 keywords or short phrases relevant to the work (these need to be pasted into the 'Keywords' box on Oxford Abstracts).

1 Introduction to guidelines

The purpose of providing these notes is to standardise the format of the short papers submitted to GISRUK. These notes are based on author guidelines previously produced for the GISRUK conference series which in turn were based on other guidelines.

The pages should have margins of 2.5 cm all round. The base font should be Times New Roman 11pt, or closest equivalent and text should be single spaced. Each section of the paper should be numbered. Section headings should be left-justified and given in bold type. A slightly larger font should be used for the title of the paper and the authors (16pt and 14pt respectively). The first line of each paragraph in each section should NOT be indented.

1.1 Sub-sections

Sub-sections should also be numbered as shown here. The sub-section heading should be left-justified and given in bold type (11pt).

2 Figures, Tables and Equations,

Tables should be as shown below (or as close as possible) and should be referenced as Table ?? in the text.

3 References and Citations

A list of references cited should be provided at the end of the paper using the APA format as shown below, including DOIs. Citations of these within the text should be given as follows: papers such as an interesting one by ? and also interesting books (?).

4   File format

Papers should be submitted in pdf format. Authors are requested to keep to the word limit of 1500 words.

5   Acknowledgements

Acknowledgement should be made of any funding bodies who have supported the work reported in the paper, of those who have given permission for their work to be reproduced or of individuals whose particular assistance is due recognition. Acknowledge data providers here where appropriate.

6   Biography

All contributing authors should include a biography of no more than 50 words each outlining their career stage and research interests.
